

Documents Association of New Jersey FDLP Conference Travel Grant Application

The Documents Association of New Jersey (DANJ) is offering two (2) travel grants to attend the Depository Library Council Meeting & Federal Depository Library Conference in Washington D.C. Each Grant will total $300 and is meant to offset the travel and lodging expenses of conference attendance.

The grants are open to librarians, library staff members, and library school students who live in New Jersey, work in a New Jersey library, and/or attend an accredited library school (in person or online). Applications will be reviewed by a committee of DANJ Executive Board members. Preference will be given to DANJ members in good standing, first time conference attendees, and applicants who do not have institutional financial support for attendance.

Successful applicants will be expected to submit a brief summary of their experience for the DANJ Newsletter.

Applications must be received by October 14, 2019.

Please provide the following information and email it to Caitlyn Cook: ccook@njstatelib.org

Full Name: _____

Title: _____

Library: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Home Address: _____

Are you a DANJ Member? _____

Have you attended the FDLP Conference previously? If so, when?

Are you currently enrolled in an accredited library school program? If so, which program?

Are you eligible to receive financial support from your library/institution to attend the conference?

Please briefly tell us how you currently work with or have developed an interest in government documents and how would benefit from attending the conference. Please attach a separate sheet with your answer.