DANJ Fall Conference—Speakers

Keynote speaker—Dr. Clement Price

Clement Alexander Price is Board of Governors Distinguished Service Professor of History, Rutgers University-Newark Campus, and Director of the Rutgers Institute on Ethnicity, Culture, and the Modern Experience, an interdisciplinary academic center that, through public partnerships and programming, offers the Newark metropolitan area the finest thinkers and artists engaged with key issues of modern life. Dr. Price is the foremost authority on the black New Jersey past by virtue of his Freedom Not Far Distant: A Documentary History of Afro-Americans in New Jersey (1980) and numerous other scholarly works. He has been the recipient of many awards for academic and community service, including: The New Jersey Nets Basketball Black History Month award at the Prudential Arena in Newark, New Jersey, February, 2011; the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Leadership Award from Essex County in February, 2010; a Lifetime Achievement Award from Local Initiatives Support Corporation, (LISC) New Jersey in November, 2008; and New Jersey Professor of the Year by The Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) in 1999. In 2006, he was inducted into the Rutgers University Hall of Distinguished Alumni.

Along with the late Giles R. Wright, he is the 1981 co-founder and co-organizer of the Marion Thompson Wright Lecture Series, one of the nation's oldest and prestigious conferences in observance of Black History Month in New Jersey.

Joseph Klett - Director of the State Archives
New Jersey State Archives will speak on the topic of “records of the East and West Jersey proprietors.”

John Shaw, NJ State Library reference librarian, genealogist and author of The Genesis of the New Jersey State Library 1703 - 1796, a Documentary History will speak on “The Government Document in Early New Jersey History.”

Susan Lyons, J.D./M.L.S.—Associate Director for Public Services will speak on 350 years of New Jersey law: how to find and research it.

Ms. Lyons oversees the library’s reference, circulation, rare books, and government documents departments. She has served as president of the New Jersey Law Librarians Association, the Documents Association of New Jersey, and chair of the Government Documents Special Interest Section of the American Association of Law Librarians. Her research interests include access to government information, statutory and legislative research, environmental law, electronic preservation, digital libraries, and legal history.

DANJ News

Congratulations Teri Taylor, for being asked to serve on the Depository Library Council! Teri's three-year tenure on the Council starts June 1, 2014.

"Teri Taylor is U.S. Documents Librarian at the New Jersey State Library where she promotes government documents to the public and state agencies via training classes, newsletters, and social media. Her previous experience was as Senior Librarian with the Camden County Library, in Voorhees, New Jersey. Taylor is a member of the New Jersey State Data Center Advisory Committee, the State Library Social Media Task Force, and the State Library Information Center E-Resources Management Committee. She is an active member of the Documents Association of New Jersey."

And thanks to Susan Lyons, for serving on the Depository Library Council from June 1, 2011 thru May 31, 2014. Please see Sue's bio on the previous page.

Both Sue and Teri are DANJ members; Sue has been elected DANJ president numerous times. DANJ is delighted to have two such talented members on the Depository Library Council.
